2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He has a long career in public life and has served as former member of the Rajya Sabha. He has undertaken several social welfare measures and is a well respected public representative who has worked for the development of his area. His inputs have helped shape and mould policy in the interest of general public by highlighting the local issues.

3	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The case registered against him is recent and stand-alone instance in an otherwise unblemished career in public life. Considering the immense hard work and devotion displayed by him to the people of his constituency, and the reasons set out in Sl. No. 2 above, it was deemed sufficient for the party to not choose any other candidate since it does not find any unsuitability in such candidate.
